

Premium reference content for libraries

Books24x7® Library Solutions

“Books24x7’s on-demand content provides students with definitions, explanations and illustrations of basic concepts and key ideas. They can find more practitioner and project orientated materials not readily available in many other online resources.”

PETER MCKAY
Collection Management,
Business/Social Sciences
University of Florida

“With updated titles and the ability to link learning objectives directly to database content, Books2x7 is a powerful tool and has endless potential for applications in other undergraduate and graduate business courses.”

ANDY LYNCH
Marketing Department Faculty,
Southern New Hampshire University

Broad and deep coverage for libraries

The Books24x7 On Demand Platform delivers comprehensive collections of premium reference content in a searchable, Web-based environment. Patrons have full access to the complete unabridged content of 25,000+ IT/computer science, engineering, technical, business, financial, government, wellness and localized books from the best names in book publishing. Additional content includes best practice reports and videos from business thought leaders and leading administrators.

ITPro™—Thorough coverage of technology topics
