

Step-by-step guide to...

Publishing Open Access in Cambridge journals

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

A step-by-step guide to publishing your article Open Access

Manuscript Preparation

- Find your chosen journal on Cambridge Core
- Review the instructions for contributors under the 'Information' section
- Format your manuscript according to these instructions.

Manuscript Submission

- Click 'Submit your article' on your chosen journal's homepage
- Complete the submission form in the journal's Online Peer Review System (OPRS).

Manuscript Review

- Your manuscript goes through Editorial and Peer Review
- Review your manuscripts progress from within the OPRS.

Publication Decision

- Your manuscript is accepted for publication
- Complete your author publishing agreement and ensure you select 'Gold Open Access'
- Confirm the Creative Commons license under which the article should be published. Please note your funder or institution may require you to select a Creative Commons license, e.g. CC-BY.

APC Transaction Process

- Rightslink® work on Cambridge's behalf to process Article Process Charges (APCs)
- If you are contacted by Rightslink®, follow their instructions. If applicable, you may enter your institution in the 'Affiliation Discount' section or seek funding from your institution. Find out more at: cambridge.org/apc
- If we have an OA publishing agreement with your institution, your APC may be automatically waived, based on your institutional affiliation. Check your eligibility at: cambridge.org/oa-waivers-and-discounts
